MOBILIZATION OF ARMY NATIONAL GUARD (ARNG) MILITARY TECHNICIANS RETAINED BEYOND MANDATORY REMOVAL DATE (MRD)

NO EXPIRATION

1. Reference: memorandum, Department of the Army, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G1, DAPE-MPO, 13 Apr 05, subject: Mobilization of Army National Guard (ARNG) and United States Army Reserve (USAR) Military Technicians Retained Beyond Mandatory Removal Date (MRD).

2. The purpose of this TAAI is to provide policy guidance on the mobilization of ARNG military technicians who have been retained beyond their MRD under provisions of 10 USC 14702(a)(2).

3. Soldiers who must be released from active duty (REFRAD), retired, or separated because they have reached their MRD for years of service or age during the mobilization period, will not be mobilized. However, officers retained under this provision of law are retained for the purpose of qualifying for a civil service retirement annuity or for reason of indispensability as determined by the State Adjutant General. These Soldiers may be mobilized and deployed if the retention period extends at least 90 days beyond the last day of the mobilization period.

4. Army National Guard military technicians retained under 10 USC 14702(a)(2) may only be mobilized with the unit to which they were assigned when they were approved for retention beyond MRD. Those who wish to mobilize with a different unit may only do so in a Retire Recall status.

5. Questions regarding this TAAI may be directed to Capt Kenneth R. DeCelle, Supervisory Human Resources Specialist at CAGNET 6-3411, DSN 466-3411, COM (916) 854-3411, or kenneth.decelle@ca.ngb.army.mil.
